

FSP Grand Rounds Webinar: Advocacy - The Why, What, and How December 12, 2023

ACCREDITATION INFORMATION

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the joint providership of the Florida Medical Association and the Florida Society of Pathologists. The Florida Medical Association is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Florida Medical Association designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

CRITERIA FOR SUCCESS

Statements of credit/participation will be awarded based on the participant's attendance at each session and submission of the activity evaluation form. A statement of credit will be available upon completion of an online evaluation/claim credit form at <https://flpath.org/webinarcme>. If you have questions about this CME/CE activity, please contact the FSP at 904-309-6261. Credit must be claimed by December 22, 2023.

ACTIVITY FORMAT

Internet Live

TARGET AUDIENCE

This activity is designed to meet the needs of academic pathologists and trainees, practicing physicians, pathologists, and other specialists involved with pathology.

STATEMENT OF NEED

It is important for pathology trainees to develop skills, knowledge, and attitudes necessary to take personal responsibility for the individual care of patients.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this activity, all participants should be able to:

- Discuss the importance of advocacy for pathologists
- Review the legislative process
- Review advocacy opportunities for pathologists at a state and national level

COMMERCIAL SUPPORT AND EDUCATIONAL GRANTS

All commercial support and educational grants will be communicated to attendees in advance of the meeting.

FACULTY AND PLANNER DISCLOSURES

There are no financial relationships to disclose because this is a non-clinical activity.

DISCLOSURE OF THE FLORIDA MEDICAL ASSOCIATION- It is the policy of the Florida Medical Association (FMA) to ensure independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all approved CME content. CME faculty must present evidence-based data, clarify off-label product use and disclose all relevant financial relationships to the audience. The ideas and opinions expressed during jointly provided events do not necessarily reflect those of the FMA, and the FMA's approval of course content for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™, does not constitute an endorsement of the ideas, positions or statements contained therein. Every effort has been made to ensure that all information provided by the joint provider is accurate and current. However, FMA does not accept responsibility for errors or omissions and accepts no liability for any resulting loss or damage. Attendees agree to participate in this CME activity with full knowledge and awareness that they waive any claim they may have against the FMA for injury or other damage that may result in any way from their participation in this activity.