Are you ready for one of pathology’s premier events? Register now for the Florida Society of Pathologists 45th Annual Pathology Conference: Updates and Practical Approaches in Pathology Feb. 22-24 at Disney’s Contemporary Resort. Featuring advanced yet practical pathology topics in the areas of urology, soft tissue tumors, dermatopathology, hematopathology and digital pathology. We encourage you to make this the first conference of the year on your calendar!

5 REASONS you must attend!

1. Learn from our expert faculty bringing you their clinical pearls from across the country
2. Take a deeper dive and choose from two of our FOUR breakout microscopy sessions on prostate pathology or dermatopathology and hematopathology or breast pathology
3. Hear practical updates and new techniques to immediately put into practice
4. Connect with colleagues and friends during our networking opportunities throughout the weekend
5. Stay and relax in a beautiful, family friendly location at Disney’s Contemporary Resort in Orlando at unbeatable discounted room rates under the FSP block

“FANTASTIC CONFERENCE that never fails to please. THE TOPICS ARE RELEVANT to the community pathologist in daily practice.”

ALICIA HIRZEL, MD, MPH
Inflammatory Dermatopathology: What the Surgical Pathologist Needs to Know
Saturday, February 23 | 8:30-9:30 PM

Steven D. Billings, MD
Professor of Pathology
Cleveland Clinic, Lerner College of Medicine
Cleveland, OH

Join Dr. Steven Billings from the Cleveland Clinic Lerner College of Medicine for a stimulating presentation on inflammatory dermatopathology. This lecture will cover inflammatory diseases including commonly encountered diseases of the skin seen in routine surgical pathology and critically important diseases every pathologist needs to know.

Interactive Microscopy: Digital Pathology
Sunday, February 24 | 9:15-10:45 AM

Marilyn Bui, MD, PhD
Scientific Director of Analytic Microscopy Core
Section Head of Bone and Soft Tissue Pathology
Director of Cytopathology Fellowship
President of Medical Staff
Moffitt Cancer Center
Tampa, FL

This lecture is composed of two parts. In the first 30 minutes, the useful resources, guides and guidelines available in Digital Pathology for practicing pathologists will be addressed. In the next 60 minutes, using whole slide imaging of five cases, some common diagnostic pitfalls in soft tissue and bone pathology that are encountered by general surgical pathologists will be illustrated. Applying an algorithmic approach, this integrative session will empower pathologists to deliver high quality care by overcoming these diagnostic pitfalls and ultimately provide timely and accurate diagnostic, prognostic and predictive information to the clinical team.

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the joint providership of the Florida Medical Association and the Florida Society of Pathologists. The Florida Medical Association is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The Florida Medical Association designates this live activity for a maximum of 12.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

CRITERIA FOR SUCCESS
Statements of credit/participation will be awarded based on the participant’s attendance at each session and submission of the activity evaluation form. A statement of credit will be available upon completion of an online evaluation/claimed credit form.

ACTIVITY FORMAT
Live

TARGET AUDIENCE
This activity is designed to meet the needs of practicing physicians, pathologists, and other specialists involved with pathology.

STATEMENT OF NEED
The field of pathology is constantly changing, and many of the most important advances in the field. In the setting of new technology, techniques and advancements in the field, practice gaps are inevitable. As such, pathologists require ongoing educational opportunities to stay current in order to maintain and improve their knowledge and competence in the field.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES
At the conclusion of this activity, all participants should be able to:
• Analyze clinically relevant diagnostic concepts to aid in patient management
• Evaluate current criteria for diagnosis in various subspecialty areas in pathology
• Discuss the new paradigms adopted in the Eighth Edition AJCC Cancer Staging Manual
• Examine the principals of TNM staging and the role of the pathologist in staging of cancer
• Analyze new subtypes of renal cell carcinoma and the implications of their accurate recognition
• Recognize diagnostic criteria for commonly encountered and clinically important inflammatory dermatoses
• Recognize the digital trends that are shaping our practice and future of e-pathology
• Discuss the shifts in workflow due to the transition from analog to digital
• Examine the importance of image analysis in routine pathology practice
• Describe communication techniques to improve professional standing and patient care.

COMMERCIAL SUPPORT
At the time of this printed, a complete listing of commercial supporters (financial or in-kind) was not available. Appropriate acknowledgment will be given to all supporters at the time of the meeting.

PLANNER DISCLOSURES
The planners of this activity disclosed no financial relationships relevant to the content to be presented.

FACULTY DISCLOSURES
The speakers for this activity disclosed no financial relationships with commercial interests whose products or services have a direct bearing on the subject matter of these presentations with the exception of Marilyn Bui, MD, PhD who has a NIH/NIH Cancer Center Support Grant as a co-investigator (5% effort), Rebekah Bernard, MD who has authored self-published books regarding physician wellness, and Eric F. Glassy, MD, FCAP who is a consultant for Leica Biosystems.
Residents, fellows, and students who are enrolled in a program in Florida and are members of the FSP are welcome to submit abstracts for consideration in the FSP Resident Digital Poster Competition. New this year, ALL pathologists are invited to submit a poster for poster hall presentations. All accepted abstracts will be displayed in the FSP Digital Poster Hall, which will feature flat panel monitors with touchscreen tablets. Digital abstracts will allow presenters to display interactive and dynamic presentations and attendees the opportunity to view exciting research in an innovative digital format.

During the designated hours on the agenda, authors will be available for a Q&A about their abstracts in the Poster Hall. The FSP Poster Review Committee will award the top three poster presenters during the FSP Annual Business Meeting on Saturday.

Interested in submitting a poster? Visit the FSP website at flpath.org/fspannual for more information on poster guidelines and how to submit.

Presentation Methods
All accepted posters will be displayed in the digital poster hall on electronic displays on on Friday, February 22 and Saturday, February 23. Authors will be assigned a time to present their posters to the judges.

POSTER SUBMISSION DEADLINE
Monday, January 28, 2019 5:00 PM EST

SPECIAL EVENTS

Welcome Reception with Exhibitors
Friday, February 22
6:00 – 7:00 PM
Join your colleagues on Friday evening in the exhibit hall. Mingle with exhibiting companies while enjoying tasty hors d’oeuvres and cocktails. During the welcome reception new FSP members will be honored.

Access to the reception is included in the registration fee. Guest tickets are available for purchase on the registration page.

FSP Business Meeting and Awards Presentation
Saturday, February 23
11:00 – 11:45 am
The FSP Business Meeting and Award Presentation will update members on important society updates including reports on membership, financial and political committees as well as important updates from key leaders from the FSP, CAP and the FMA.

Fellowship Reception and Resident Roundtable Forum
Saturday, February 23
4:00 – 5:30 PM
Residents and fellows are invited to attend a networking reception with fellowship programs. After the reception there will be a resident roundtable discussion where residents will be broken into smaller groups and will rotate through roundtable discussions facilitated by an FSP leader. This is the perfect opportunity to obtain valuable insight into the minds of FSP leaders about the future of your career!
